Introducing Raleigh's new Aggressive All Mountain line—long travel bikes with 5-6" of adjustable rear suspension. Specially designed for trail riding, mountain bike parks and days spent riding Shore-style with your bros, the high end RAM XTs feature some of the best components available.

Designed to take you down the mountain at warp speed without stranding you at the bottom, the RAM 3500 is the perfect tool to maximize your fun on the trail. A totally new frame design with 5-6" of plush adjustable rear travel, this bike will handle a wide variety of terrain and conditions. Equipped with Manitou's Link System (featuring front and rear SPV valving) and components from Hayes, SRAM and Truvativ, you may enjoy pedaling up almost as much as the trip back down.

One of Raleigh's most popular series, the Mountain Hardtail is ready for serious cross-country and competition use. Perfect for riders who prefer the light weight and low maintenance of a hardtail design (not to mention great value), you can't go wrong with a Raleigh Mountain Hardtail.

The name alone evokes images of a rocky alpine setting. The 2004 Talus meets and conquers that vision. Raleigh's top end hardtail, the Talus, is lightweight and businesslike—designed for no nonsense performance riding and competition. With a double butted frame, Manitou Axel Elite fork and components from Shimano, Ritchey and Truvativ, the Talus is a study in simplicity and efficiency.

The traditional cornerstone of Raleigh Bicycles and a classic example of continued quality design and performance for more than a century, Raleigh Road bikes have made (and kept) their mark. A true competitor just like its riders, Raleigh produces some of the finest road bikes in the world and enjoys a following of loyal road racers. Raleigh's Road line also offers the Capri—a road bike created especially for women.

Light fuse and get away! We probably should warn you, the 2004 edition of our flagship road bike is nothing short of a road rocket. With the reduced weight and additional stiffness of Shimano's new 10 speed Dura-Ace group and Mavic's ultra lightweight Ksyrium SL2 wheelset, this is one of the quickest rigs you'll find - anywhere at any price. A Columbus Airplane tube set with Carve carbon seatstays & full carbon fork provide the foundation, while components from ITM, Vittoria and Selle Italia round out this truly world-class machine.

C700

The C700 is our version of the Urban Assault Vehicle. Speed and utility are the operative words here. With a double butted alloy frame and carbon fiber front fork, this bike is perfect for quick strikes to work, school or the gym. Rack & fender mounts provide versatility for die hard commuters and touring enthusiasts alike. An unmatched combination of speed and comfort also makes the C700 the perfect "event ride" bike for open road use.
